

Grade 6 Homeroom – Miss Cotter:

Basic Supply List for Incoming Sixth Graders:

- plenty of pens, including a red pen for in-class correcting
- plenty of sharpened pencils; an individual pencil sharpener is helpful as well; eraser tops
- DEDICATED notebook and pocket folder for each class – Lit., Grammar, Spanish, Math, Religion, Science, and History
- Loose-leaf paper; COMPOSTION BOOK for journal writing
- silent reading book to be brought to each class
- minimum of 2 packages of 100 3x5 lined index cards for lit/grammar
- 1 Webster's New World Dictionary or equivalent
- mini-stapler and refills
- highlighters
- crayons or colored pencils for lit/grammar
- pencil case/box for materials to be transported to class
- ruler for math class – must be BOTH inches and centimeters
- please send in two boxes of tissues as we go through quite a few throughout the year

SUMMER READING for Grade 6 Lit:

The Giver by Lois Lowry

The Raft by S. A. Bodeen

Grade 6 Religion – Miss Cotter:

Overview: We'll be learning about the people, places and events of the Old Testament.

Materials needed: pocket folder; pens

Expect to:

- have all materials needed for class each day; this includes your CHARGED Chromebook
- try your best each class, and on each assignment
- pay attention and participate in class
- listen respectfully when others are speaking
- turn in your work on time; if assigned in G-Classroom, turn it in on G-Class
- be graded on independent work, group/class work, quizzes, tests, and projects

Grade 6 History – Miss Cotter

Overview: We'll be learning about the earliest people on Earth and the development of civilizations around the world

Materials needed: notebook; pocket folder; pens; book cover

Expect to:

- have all materials needed for class each day; this includes your CHARGED Chromebook
- try your best each class, and on each assignment
- pay attention and participate in class
- listen respectfully when others are speaking
- turn in your work on time; if assigned in G-Classroom, turn it in on G-Class
- be graded on independent work, group/class work, quizzes, tests, and projects

Grade 6 Science – Miss Cotter:

Overview: We'll be learning about the Earth's System and interior, forces that shaped Earth's landforms, weathering and erosion, and touching on force and motion

Materials needed: pocket folder; pens; book cover

Expect to:

- have all materials needed for class each day; this includes your CHARGED Chromebook
- try your best each class, and on each assignment
- pay attention and participate in class
- listen respectfully when others are speaking
- turn in your work on time; if assigned in G-Classroom, turn it in on G-Class
- be graded on independent work, group/class work, quizzes, tests, and projects

